

Chrism Eucharist and Renewal of Vows 2011

For the avoidance of doubt....

- The Chrism Eucharist will be on Wednesday 20 April 2011 at 7.30pm. in Southwell Minster
- The Eucharist will include the blessing of oils and the renewal of vows.
- The preacher will be Canon Dr Christina Baxter, Principal of St John's College, Nottingham.
- Those who are recognised or licensed lay ministers, deacons, priests or bishops are all invited to renew their vows; members of parish churches or sectors are invited to come and support their ministers.
- If you normally wear robes please do so on this occasion; cassock, surplice (or alb) and scarf or stole (white); gather in the Quire to robe and process, or just to process if you do not robe (easiest way to get you in 'en bloc').
- If you are authorised and intend to take oils away for use in your church/ sector ministry please bring your own containers.
- The laying on of hands with prayer (and anointing) for wholeness and healing will be offered after the service.
- There will be no diocesan service in Southwell Minster on Maundy Thursday.
- Please contact me if you have any queries.
