

The Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham will be taking part in BacktoChurchSunday again this year on Sunday 27th September 2009 and we hope your church will take up the opportunity to be part of the campaign, either again or for the first time. There are new resources out this year and a choice of packs for churches to order through the diocese. Here is an outline of how it works...

How to get involved...

Flyers with response forms will be sent out to every parish in March so they can sign up to be involved. These will also be available to download on our website.

Anyone with questions should contact:

btcs@southwell.anglican.org

Pack orders can also be placed via this email.

All pack orders will need to be placed by 18th May 2009.
